96 impala ss manual for sale

It was higher than the ticket price because it had one owner and they took good care of the car. I would rather not go directly through them. They were hustling and crunching numbers. This changed my decision to buy the car. Toni and Larry both were extremely helpful. I have been hesitant to buy cars from dealers but both these gentlemen very honest and trustworthy. I will be shopping their location before I look anywhere else if I am ever back in the market for another car. The car I bought from Revolution Motors was described perfectly. Larry was friendly and helpful and everything was I would definitely buy from Revolution Motors again. They were not annoying about constantly contacting Truck I was interested in sold before I could see it. Listing accuracy. Did the listing accurately describe the conditions of the vehicle Yes. Onsite experience. Was the car clean and ready for your testdrive No. Customer service. Was the dealership staff friendly and accommodating Yes. Overall impression. Would you recommend the dealer to your friends Yes The low suspension of the car could make it feel even faster, as the roadhugging features made the car feel like it had lift similar to an airplane. After all, over 30 million shoppers use CarGurus to find great deals on used cars and new cars in their area. untill funds clear Questions please call 440 915 3723 Serious inquiries only No low ballers No warranty! The car is in beautiful condition inside and out. I purchased this particular vehicle from its original owner. The car was located in Greenlawn, New York. The car was meticulously maintained and always garage kept. The vehicle has never been driven in the winter months through salt, sand, and or snow. The undercarriage and engine compartment are proof of that statement. The seats have no cracks or tears. No dents in the body panels. All glass minus the windshield is all factory installed glass. I have had some parts installed on the car and other things done as well which are as follows Eibach lowering springs. They bring the center of gravity a bit lower which help the handling substantially. Bilstein shocks on all 4 corners. I read and researched a lot and made my decision based on my research. The bilstein are the most expensive but worth every penny. The original decarbon shocks were still working but in my opinion, they are junk! New pads and rotors all around. New sway bar end links up front. New wheel bearings front and rear and rear axle seals as well.

The car sat since 2009 and I just wanted to freshen them up a bit I removed the mufflers and resonators and put in 2 stainless steel glass packs for some sound. Its not very loud but makes a nice rumble. If you are familiar with this body style, you will know the rear tires sit far forward on the wheel well. I also did all new urethane bushings. These bars also dont have the five of the cheap stamped steel oem bars. Helps the car handle much better. Oil replaced with Mobil 1 fully synthetic oil and the rear end fluid was also done. 40% legal window tint. Mass Law. Not dark at all. Just gives the vehicle a lil more attitude. The tires on this vehicle are from 2001. They are in excellent shape. This vehicle was never abused. Ive had it on the lift and Ive gone through it thoroughly. I have a folder from the original owner of all service records and slips from the dealer. I also have the title in hand. I hate to sell but dont have time for it and I hate seeing it sit in my garage when someone could be enjoying it. I really need an other truck as well so trades also welcome. Vehicle is 19 years old. Many people cloned their Caprice to look like a true Impala SS.

Many people do not know that Chevy actually did make the Chevy Caprice SS, which is a Chevy Impala SS badged as a Chevy Caprice SS for markets outside the USA. The side emblems in the back said Caprice SS. Car has been sitting for well over a year and badly needs a fresh paint job and tune up. No rips in the interior at all. The 264500 kilometers converts to 164352 miles. This is a very rare car and not to many in the USA, as most were all shipped to the Middle East. Serious inquiries only. Still have original air intake. All door, seat, dash, defrost controls work. I am second owner and have had for 12 years. Always kept in garage or under carport. Minor exterior scratches. Minor wear to rear seat. Extensive wear to front seats. Pioneer and JL speakers. 4 speed automatic. Shifter on center console. Dash, console, and door panels are in excellent condition. Viper alarm. Good tire tread. New window tint. Fuel pump and fuel filter changed at 80,000 miles. Small tear on headliner. Small dings in rear quarter panels. No spare tire or jack. Missing trunk Emblem and 2 hubcaps. The 1994-1995-1996 Impala SS represents one of the best luxury sedans made by GM. GM decided to sell a public version of their "Police Interceptor". Simply stated, the basic Impala design was improved through the addition of a heavy duty suspension, upgraded brakes and lowered "stance". A popular magazine compared the Impala SS to a Mercedes S Class Sedan. Deposit To Be In The Form Of A Certified Check Drawn On A Nation Wide US Bank. Deposit Check To Be Delivered By OVERNIGHT MAIL. It made 840 horsepower at the rear tires before the nitrous kit was installed which adds another 75 horsepower to the wheels. This was limited because at anything past that point, the clutch began to slip. This is definitely a car you can take to shows and take it to the race track but this is also an amazing street car that cruises comfortably on the highway getting nearly 20 mpg in air conditioned comfort. Have your cake and eat it too. Most of these miles came from the 3 Hot Rod Power Tours the car has been on. This car has never been raced or abused. I can assist with the replacement and recharge after the sale if the buyer desires. Heater works well Engine 383 stroker LT1 engine built by Finish Line Performance FLP in the Chicago area. The title does show repo. There has never been any paint or body work of any kind. The car just had the title issued in the last 45 days or so. It is a clear Arkansas title showing exempt due to the car being over 10 years old. The car is in great shape with extra low mileage. The car has been pampered all of its life. The interior is in like new condition, with no rips tears of any nature. The rear seat look like no one ever sat on it. The carpet is also great with no foot rub wear of any nature. The car has a sunroof, that does not leak and functions perfect. The car runs and drives great. The car has a reconstructed title due to an accident. I had the car professionally repaired at Corbitts Collision here in Atlanta, GA. There service and work quality is very amazing. The car was inspected and title in my name and is currently registered. Paint work was only done on the driver side. I have owned the car for the past 2 years. Serious inquires only. Our console insert provides a factorylike appearance to finish off the interior of your Impala SS with a manual transmission. A leather shift boot is included. Note that the pictures shown are of hand trimmed prototypes; production pieces will be CNC trimmed and will therefore have neater edges. To install, simply remove the trim around the console and remove the automatic shifter surround. There is some minor trimming of your console to be done, underneath the auto shifter surround, following our instructions. Our insert fits perfectly, and replacing the trim secures it in place.

If you have a T56 Magnum we sell a shift lever relocation spacer that moves your lever back to work perfectly with our insert. Only logged in customers who have purchased this product may leave a review. Fill out my online form. Fill out my Wufoo form. Close Scroll to top.
